WE'LL BEAT ACID THUGS

● East London struggles to respond to shocking rise in acid attacks

SENIOR councillors and police have pledged to deal with the 'growing problem' of recent acid attacks in East London.

Barking and Dagenham Council has vowed it will make a case to the Government and Deputy Mayor for a stronger police presence, tougher sentencing and changes to the law.

They also want greater controls on the purchase of acid.

Leader of the Council Cllr Darren Rodwell said: "Acid attacks ruin lives and are sadly becoming all too common. We are doing everything we can to work with our colleagues in the police to prevent them from happening and to ensure the perpetrators are caught

SHOCK Cllr Rodwell has called for tighter regulation on the sale of corrosive liquids and brought to justice.

"The council cannot do it alone, but rest assured I am exploring with officers everything within our powers we can do as a council – including evicting perpetrators who are council tenants.

"We have thousands of honest, responsible people crying out for a council home so I want to make sure that anyone found to be [carrying out this type of attack] has that privilege taken away and given to someone who deserves it."

The latest attack in Dagenham involved a resident who had advertised a mobile phone for sale online.

Councillor Laila Butt, cabinet member for enforcement and community safety, is appealing for businesses and the community at large to help the authorities tackle the issue.

"I appeal to parents,

'We are looking for ways to evict tenants who have carried out attacks...'

neighbours and shopkeepers to be vigilant and play their part in helping us stop these attacks happening," said Cllr Butt.

"I would also ask people to be careful about who they let into their homes.

"Our CCTV operatives and trading standards officers will double their efforts to help the police with their investigations."

Cllr Rodwell added: "With acid products currently so readily available, we will be making a case to the Government and the Deputy Mayor for Policing calling for tougher sentencing and changes to the law on the sale and purchase of corrosive substances."

Police chiefs have admitted to their growing fears about the rise of acid attacks across East London.

DI Michelle Peters of Waltham Forest CID said: "The impact of acidic substances on victims is terrible. Let me be clear, those found carrying corrosive substances will be arrested and they will be made to face the consequences."

Police appeal over alleged knife attack

POLICE are continuing to appeal for information about the death of a 28-year-old man in Romford on Tuesday, July 11.

Liam Harman, of Harold Hill, suffered a fatal injury in a block of flats in Straight Road at 10.40pm.

Mr Harman died as a result of stab wounds to the chest and abdomen. The Met's Homicide and Major Crime Command are urging anyone with information about the alleged victim or circumstances leading to the incident to come forward.

Anyone with information can call the police incident room on 020 8345 3985, tweet @MetCC or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

■ A MAN is due to appear at the Old Bailey charged with the murder of a man in Romford on Tuesday, July 11.

Nathan Charles, 22, appeared at Barkingside Magistrates' Court on Friday, July 21.

A 27-year-old man was arrested on Saturday, July 15, on suspicion of murder and released under investigation.

Body found in Epping

THE FAMILY of a missing woman from Chingford have been approached by police after a body was discovered in Epping on Sunday, July 23. Police issued an appeal for for the missing Denise Jacobs, 45, on Saturday, July 21.

She was last seen at 2.40pm in the Vallence Road area, Bethnal Green, on Monday, July 17.

Ms Jacobs was also believed to be in the Leytonstone High Road area between 4pm and 5.30pm on the same day.

Formal identification has yet to take place.

Essex Police have begun investigations into the circumstances surrounding the death, which they say is now not being treated as suspicious.

NEW TRICKS

AN APPRENTICE at Barking and Dagenham College has hailed a "life-changing" project designed to get more young women interested in the construction industry.

Carrienne Crosfield, 17, of Barking, revealed the different skills picked up on projects with her fellow apprentices over the past few months.

She said: "The Aspire project has changed my life and got me on to a great career path. On this apprenticeship I've gained a first aid certificate and next year I will get my CSCS card – so I'll be site-ready."

"We've also worked on film sets and at the Lewisham Academy."

Council swoops on illegal renting

A DAGENHAM man who illegally rented out a 'granny annex' was fined and ordered to pay over £4,500 by Barkingside Magistrates last week (14 July).

Raymond Hunt of Rothwell Road, Dagenham, was in court following an investigation by Barking and Dagenham Council.

Hunt was given planning permission to relocate a garage at the side of Rothwell Road and replace it with a two-storey extension to provide the annex.

Planning permission was granted on condition that it would be occupied only by a person dependant on Hunt for reasons of physical or mental disability – or frailty caused by age.

But investigators found Hunt was renting out the self-contained flat for around £500 a month to a non-family member.

Barking and Dagenham Council has an ongoing struggle to house its homeless due to its acute shortage of homes.

But councillors said they were justified in their crackdown on annex rentals.

Councillor Laila Butt, cabinet member for enforcement and community safety, said: "Thanks to our diligent investigators we were able track down Hunt's misuse of his flat."

"It was there to help house a vulnerable person – not to make money."

Hunt pleaded guilty to both the Housing Act offence and the TCPA 1990 offence.

The bench ordered that he pay a £3,000 fine (£1,500 per offence), £1,200 costs, and a victim surcharge of £300.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Woman's fury wrecks home

● A WOMAN has been sentenced after causing approximately £4,000 worth of criminal damage to an ex-boyfriend's property in Woodford Green.

Peta Taylor, 25, of Forest Road, N9, received an indefinite restraining order, fined £185, given 120 hours of unpaid work, 20 days rehabilitation and a 12 month community order at Barkingside Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, July 25.

She was also found guilty of assaulting Edwin Willis and assault by beating of James Kettleton, his neighbour.

The court heard how Taylor also destroyed various items in Mr Willis's home in Liston Way on January 23, 2017.

The court saw photos of the damage done to Mr Willis's sofa and TV – sent to his phone by the defendant.

The defence claimed that Mr Willis had caused the damage to the sofa himself because he wanted to reduce shipping costs to Jamaica.

The defendant, who pleaded not guilty to the charge, maintained her innocence.

Mr Willis, who is 20 years older than the defendant, was in an eight-year relationship with Ms Tarylor. She claimed Mr Willis wanted to jeopardise her immigration status and alleged the victim's controlling behaviour damaged the relationship.

Taylor's restraining order bans her from Liston Way and contacting the victim or Mr Kettleton.

Wife assault

● A MAN from Ilford has been sentenced for assaulting his wife in a Dagenham address.

Pawan Bhatia, 36, of Vaughan Gardens, received a £585 fine, an unpaid work order and a 12 month community order at Barkingside Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, July 25.

Bhatia pleaded not guilty, but the court heard how officers on Holmstead Road witnessed the assault.

The police also reported that Bhatias's problems with alcohol meant they were regularly called to his address.

Classic car and bike festival to aid hospice care

CAR lovers from across Europe will flash the cash at a vintage vehicle show in September for Saint Francis Hospice.

They hope to raise more than £100,000 at the sixth Frankie's Classic Car and Bike Fest Show in Laindon on September 3.

Alan Mason, event organiser and fundraising volunteer at the hospice, said: "This is a fantastic day out for all the family and we expect this to be our biggest show ever, especially with the Ford Focus MK1 RS and Escort Cosworth anniversary meets as part of the main event. The event has raised £84,000 over the past five years so we are aiming to break the £100,000 mark this year."

The show is open from 10am to 4pm. Adult tickets cost £5 and under-12s have free entry.

No dogs are allowed on site other than assistance dogs.

GOOD CAUSE: Ray, Luke and Christian with the Ford MK1 Focus RS

Vice clampdown after complaints

A JOINT operation by police, Redbridge and Barking and Dagenham councils to clear streets of sex workers in the Ilford Lane area has been hailed a success.

The operation was carried out from July 10 following complaints by residents and businesses of on-street sex workers.

It resulted in 25 cautions for prostitution, 31 stop-and-searches and 20 arrests for offences including recall to prison, extradition, drink-driving, car theft, assault, affray, breach of dispersal notices, supplying drugs, drug possession and Bail Act offences.

There were 44 dispersal notices given to men and women under Section 35 of the Policing and Crime Act 2014 to leave the area.

Winged wonders

PUPILS at a Harold Hill primary school were wowed by birds of prey at the opening of a new wildlife garden.

Animal lovers at Drapers' Maylands Primary School held owls and hawks at the opening of the specially created British Wildlife Garden featuring benches, beehives and birds' nests.

Trudy Spillane, principal at the school, said: "It was a wonderful way to celebrate this term's work with the artist in residence.

"Our children have enjoyed every aspect of learning to plan and create products but then to celebrate by meeting birds of prey.

"We really are very fortunate to be able to offer such diverse learning experiences."

BOPARA HELPS EAGLES TO WIN

Cricket

Essex Eagles v Hampshire
NatWest T20 Blast
South Group

Brian Jeeves reporting from the Cloudfm County Ground,
Chelmsford
Hampshire 124/9 (20 overs)
Essex Eagles 129/3 (14 overs)
Essex Eagles won by 7
wickets

ALL-ROUNDER Ravi Bopara took four wickets as Essex Eagles saw off Hampshire to clinch only their second NatWest T20 Blast success of the season.

Bopara finished with figures of 4/19, while Paul Walter took 2/20 as Hampshire were reduced to just 124/9 from their 20 overs.

Michael Carberry top scored for the visitors with 30, while skipper James Vince scored 29.

However, those around them fell relatively cheaply.

On a miserable evening for Hampshire they failed to find the boundary from the middle of the sixth over, leaving them with an uphill task.

Essex knocked off the runs required with six overs to spare.

Bopara fittingly saw the Eagles home with a huge six.

Meanwhile, Dan Lawrence fell

WICKETS: Ravi Bopara

short of his half-century, chipping Shahid Afridi's delivery back at him while on 47.

Adam Wheeler was among the runs for the home side, finishing unbeaten on 44. This could prove to be a big win for Essex as they look to kick-start their season in the shorter form of the game.

After the match Bopara said: "It is fair to say the confidence has been a little bit low and that is normally the way when you lose a couple of games.

"We needed to get a performance. In T20 cricket if you're not confident from ball one it can be tough.

"This will be brilliant for the boys. It has been disappointing so far, but it's not over."

Essex's bowling was so tight Hampshire were unable to hit a boundary in the final 13 and a half overs of their innings.

A disbelieving Bopara said: "Really? All the way to the end? That's an unbelievable effort.

"That's what wickets do – if you take wickets it puts the batting side on the back foot.

"The opposition will get through a couple of overs and you think, 'Oh my God, we're behind it' and you need to get the run-rate back up – then you lose another wicket and it's downhill from there.

"The timing of the wickets were perfect from everybody today. To keep them down to 124, especially at Chelmsford, is a serious effort."

Hampshire have lost back-to-back games and seamer Reece Topley said: "It is a momentum game. Two games in a row the momentum hasn't been there.

"It was with us in the first three games – it was going nicely, everyone was hitting their straps, and unfortunately, it hasn't been with us the last two games.

"I can't blame the batsmen because I know how hard the job is, but we haven't yet had a perfect or complete performance from the batsmen and the bowlers."

Glamorgan v Essex Eagles NatWest T20 Blast South Group

ESSEX Eagles hopes of recording back-to-back T20 Blast victories were thwarted by the weather on Sunday when their clash with Glamorgan at Sophia Gardens, Cardiff was abandoned.

They were looking to follow up Friday's impressive win, which was only their second of the campaign.

Essex are next in T20 action on Thursday, July 27 (7pm), when they take on Middlesex at Lord's

Non-league round-up

Jobi is back to give O's boost

By Brian Jeeves

NATIONAL League Leyton Orient have added Jobi McAnuff, Craig Clay and Romuald Boco to the squad.

Midfielder McAnuff, 35, spent two years with the O's between 2014-16 making more than 50 appearances. He enjoyed spells with Wimbledon, Cardiff City, Crystal Palace, West Ham United, Watford, Reading and Stevenage, and has also been capped on 30 occasions for Jamaica. He returns to E10 on a one-year deal.

Clay, 25, who made 39 appearances for Motherwell last season, links up with the O's on a two-year deal. He spent time with Chesterfield, York City, FC Halifax Town, Workson Town and Grimsby Town.

The defender represented England C during his time at Grimsby. Boco arrives at Brisbane Road on a two-year deal having parted company with Sky Bet League Two outfit Accrington Stanley. The 32-year-old becomes the O's 11th summer signing.

Benin international Boco joins Orient after three spells with Accrington. He started his career with Chamois Niortais before joining the east Lancashire side in 2005.

Canvey Island have announced that striker George Sykes has rejoined the club a month after linking up with National League South side, Braintree Town.

Despite finding themselves relegated last season, Sykes scored 21 goals for the Gulls.

Ilford FC have been successful in their appeal to remain in the Essex Senior League. The Foxes were expelled following a meeting of the league's member clubs for the alleged failure to pay subscriptions and fines. But the Cricklefield Stadium club were reinstated to the ESL following an independent hearing at the Football Association's headquarters at Wembley Stadium. Ilford lost 5-1 at Felixstowe & Walton United in their latest pre-season friendly.

Ex-Maldon & Tiptree striker, Liam Nash, has landed a contract with Sky Bet League One Gillingham. The frontman, who bagged 37 goals for the Jammers in the last campaign, links up with the Gills on a two-year deal. Nash, who also spent a spell with Great Wakering Rovers, scored twice for Gillingham in a 12-0 pre-season friendly victory over Chatham Town.

ProKit UK Essex Olympian League outfit Southend Sports took on Essex Senior Leaguer's Hullbridge Sports at Cupids Country Club. The ESL club grabbed the spoils from what was a well-contested match thanks to a goal from Ronnie Pallett shortly before the half-hour mark.

Bostik North outfit, Canvey Island, were beaten 2-0 by Belgian third tier side Patro Eidsen Maasmechelen at Park Lane on Friday. National League South side, Braintree Town, lost 3-0 to a strong Colchester United side. Sammie Szmodics bagged a brace, while Louis Dunne was on target for the Sky Bet League Two outfit

Chelmsford City won 2-1 over Bostik North side Thurrock at Ship Lane. Kane Haysman and Oyengua were on target for the Claret, Jordan Clarke replied from the penalty spot for Thurrock.

Billerica Town won 6-2 at Bishop's Stortford. Sam Deering (2), Danny Waldren, Joe Ellul, Billy Bricknell (penalty) and Louie Theophanous were all on target for Town, while Matt Tapley and Ryan Richefond responded for Stortford.

Concord Rangers lost 2-0 to Margate at the Aspect Arena. Frannie Collin and a Jack Evans penalty ensuring the Kent side a victory.

West Ham land Arnautovic for club record fee

Football

By Brian Jeeves

WEST Ham United have followed the signings of Pablo Zabaleta and Joe Hart by landing exciting attacker Marko Arnautovic for a club record fee from Premier League rivals Stoke City.

The Austrian international joins the Hammers for a fee believed to be in the region of £24million, much to the delight of the east Londoners' manager Slaven Bilic.

Speaking to the club's website, Bilic said: "It's a great thing for the club. It's a big signing – he is a massive player who knows the league, which is very important.

"He is in his best age, he is very motivated and I know him very well. He is a top player and he can play all across the front line, so he is a great signing for the club. Like everybody else, he has to prove himself, but I expect him to and he comes into the category of players who don't need to adjust a lot to the league because he has been here for four years.

"He became one of, if not the, best and most important Stoke players.

"Stoke is a good club, so with all that and knowing that today it's not easy to get top players, it makes it a great signing for us."

RECORD-BREAKER: Hammers boss Slaven Bilic with Marko Arnautovic

Picture courtesy of West Ham United FC this is what I like. The club is still growing, getting better and better and that's why I'm here."

Arnautovic, 28, who arrives at the London Stadium on a five-year deal, said: "It feels special to me to be a West Ham player. Everyone knows that West Ham is a big club, with big history and I'm happy to be a part of it now. I can't wait to get started.

"I played against West Ham at the old stadium – I didn't play last year at the new stadium because I was suspended – but I came to the game and I can only say it is a massive club with a lot of fans.

"They are crazy for football and Arnautovic started his career with FC Twente. Then, after a loan spell with Italian side Internazionale, he joined Bundesliga outfit Werder Bremen. After linking up with Stoke City in 2013 Arnautovic found the net 26 times in 146 appearances.

WEST HAM have confirmed that Republic of Ireland international goalkeeper Darren Randolph has left the club to join Championship outfit Middlesbrough. The 30-year-old joins for a fee of £5m after making 42 appearances for the London Stadium side.

Bilic said: "I would like to thank Darren for his service to the club over the past two years. Darren is a very good goalkeeper, and I didn't want him to leave. I could not guarantee him regular first team football and, with the possibility of playing at the World Cup for the Republic of Ireland next summer, he wanted to take up the offer from Middlesbrough."

Academy coach Liam Manning, was delighted with his young Hammers side after they recorded a narrow 2-1 win over National League Dagenham & Redbridge at Victoria Road.

Speaking after goals from Jahmal Hector-Ingram and Dan Kemp earned West Ham success, Manning said: "We set the boys a challenge of playing to our philosophy, which we didn't think we'd done too well in the first two [pre-season] games.

"There was a bigger emphasis in playing how we want to play and I thought the lads did that really well. I think we've seen a progression over the three games."

Daggers manager John Still said: "Overall, I was quite pleased."
